

Web Development

Mohamed Amine Terbah

How does the web work ?

The World Wide Web, commonly known as the Web, was originally a hypertext document management system accessed over the Internet. It has since evolved into the world's dominant software platform.

What do you need to be a web developer?

Skills :

1. Web dev Fundamentals
2. Comprehensive Key programming languages

Specialisation :

- Front-end (Interface and DOM)
- Back-end (Data manipulation)
- FullStack which is both specialisation.

TOOLS & EQUIPMENTS NEEDED FOR

Hard coding:

1. Computer
2. Code editor
3. Problem resolution skills

CMS:

No programming skills needed

What is the role of a web developer.

 A full stack Web Dev is a programmer that does :

- Program a Web page using (JS, JQuery Or React)
- Program a server using (PHP, ASP, Python, NodeJs)
- Program a DataBase using (SQL, SQLite, MongoDB )

Conclusion

Since the developer will be responsible of building or managing a web site/app.

It's role is to build the website :

Design its interface in a good shape and interactive.

Make it's data well manipulated .

What other skills needed for a better and responsive website ?